

NorthBridge Solutions — Code of Conduct

1. Purpose and Scope

This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behavior expected of every NorthBridge Solutions employee, contractor, and intern, regardless of role or location. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

2. Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to treat colleagues, clients, and partners with respect and professionalism. Discrimination or harassment based on race, gender, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, or any other protected characteristic will not be tolerated.

3. Anti-Harassment Policy

NorthBridge Solutions maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward workplace harassment, including sexual harassment. Employees who experience or witness harassment should report it immediately to HR or via the confidential ethics hotline. All reports are investigated promptly and confidentially.

4. Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose any outside business activity, financial interest, or personal relationship that could reasonably be seen to conflict with the interests of NorthBridge Solutions. Disclosures should be submitted to HR via the Conflict of Interest form.

5. Confidentiality of Information

Employees must protect confidential company, client, and employee information both during and after their employment. Confidential information must not be shared with unauthorized parties or used for personal gain.

6. Use of Company Assets

Company equipment, systems, and resources are provided for business purposes. Reasonable personal use is permitted provided it does not interfere with work duties or violate any other company policy.

7. Anti-Bribery and Gifts

Employees must not offer, give, solicit, or accept bribes or improper payments. Business gifts exceeding INR 2,000 in value must be declared to the Compliance team and may require declination or donation.

8. Reporting Violations

Employees who become aware of a violation of this Code of Conduct should report it through their manager, HR, or the anonymous ethics hotline. Retaliation against anyone who reports a concern in good faith is strictly prohibited.
